

Tackling Domestic Abuse and Sexual Violence

Norfolk's Police & Crime Commissioner is asking victims for their help in improving services provided to people suffering domestic abuse, rape and sexual violence.

If you are or have been a victim, and you sought help or advice from any agency, please take our short survey.

Tell us what was good about the service you received.
Tell us what could have been done better.

If you have felt unable to go to anyone for help, please tell us why.

Responses are anonymous.

Play your part in improving services for victims of domestic abuse, rape and sexual violence.
